McBride would like to wish a happy anniversary to James Martin, Doreen Linahan and Annette Kase!

This month, we celebrate the remarkable work anniversaries of three valued members of the McBride Corporate Real Estate team! Senior Vice President, James Martin, marks his 24th year with the company, while Doreen Linahan, NY Office Manager, celebrates her 28th anniversary on March 20. Annette Kase, who joined the team on March 24, 2003, marks her 20th year with the company. Each of these individuals has played a crucial role in the success and growth of the company, bringing unique skills and dedication to their roles. Congratulations James, Doreen, and Annette on your remarkable achievements and contributions to the team! Here's to many more years of success and growth together.

Client Testimonial

"McBride Corporate Real Estate has helped Push to Walk during our times of growth and expansion. They are always professional in their dealings and take the utmost of interest in us as a client. I feel like they really care about us and our success and try to find options and solutions that are in our best interest. I would highly recommend them to anyone looking for a commercial real estate company who can deliver what they promise!" - Cynthia Templeton, Founder
